Student Stewardship Agreement 2009/2010 School Year

Once they get beyond feeling that too much is asked of them, students will realize that perfection is actually within their grasp. The only thing they have to do is live their lives as students as well as they can: do their best in study and work; put into practice the virtues they already know in theory – especially love, which must be lived in the classroom, at home, and among friends; accept difficulties with courage; help those in need; give good example. In addition, they must find the inspiration for their daily lives in the words and the example of Jesus. They must converse with him in prayer and receive him in the Eucharist. No student can say that these are impossible demands. (Congregation for Catholic Education, p. 48)

As a student in Our Lady of Mount Carmel Catholic School, I recognize my stewardship for the education that I am to receive. I accept my responsibilities as a student and I agree to follow faithfully all the assignments that my teachers will assign to me. In completing my obligations, I will follow the example of the student Jesus.
